My dear Mr Mary

As a letter addressed to Mr.
Wadsworth is going from this house I avail myself of it to write you a hurried line. I had previously decided on Mrs.
London Beaus for your amusement.

My daughter & I have been here since the 6th Inst. It is the first time I have visited Ireland: & like it to the sea, altho.
came to see so much beauty as I have understood to prevail here, & no special objects of attraction, - at least not for me,
have kept me away from the "Lakes of Killarney": and it is only always objects & sympathies which have drawn me little

Mr. Webb has been very pressing for us to visit him during Miss Paylis stay with him. Mary has a Report of the "British Christian Ladies' A.S." & the writing of which she wished to submit to, & I was anxious to communicate with A.D. re. about our projected paper, - the A.S. Advocate which we meant to have out on the 1st of Aug. at a Meeting to be held in London on the 2d, (or the following) day. But this Meeting must be given up. G.T. is not able to attend so soon after his departure; and I am so anxious that the editing of our paper should be undertaken by Mr. Webb, that I have thought it better to withhold its coming out for a month or two, rather than begin without seeing our way for its continuance for a year. I wrote by a letter to Mr Parsons the day from London last month that we were planning a paper, but begged him not to say much about it yet, in case our failure. I have no fear for trying the experiment, & take care shall begin in Sept. or Oct.

I had a long letter from Mr. Thurston yesterday he says he is not disappointed. but he must be sadly disappointed. Had he declined standing, he would have retired from parliament in a peaceful manner, & would have retained many friends, & a dignified position. Now he is thoroughly beaten owing to the withdrawal of old friends, & subscriptions. Many reasons for this are given, but the fact remains. G.T. did represent the T.V. and now is turned off. Dont mention any of this which may appear disparaging to this worthy fellow — I believe he will benefit by the result.

Your last letter (dated ? I have lost it to R?) followed me to Dublin. We were all greatly interested in it. What you say of Emerson is not strange to me & the same Religion is to be found in strange & unlooked for quarters. We hope to take Mrs Pope back to Bristol with us.

We have just heard that Mr. Russell Carpenter is about to be married to Miss Mary Brame of Bridgwater. She has remained a great part of Daylesford during things to have visited of late to the Woolen Bazaar. We are afraid the Edw.d Matthews has pursued a dishonourable course by having circulated some statements about Hewson the accuracy of which he was unable to vouch for.

Rev.d Sam.l Sharp.

Ans.d Aug. 31, 52

I am arranging for another year of schooling for the Crabtree children likely to have a family about me with her deceased sister. The Aunt has long been much interested for them: so you may be sure they are in favourable circumstances. All are well join in kind regards to yourself & family. Uncle
